

2023 NAIIA SOUTHWEST REGION BUSINESS MEETING & EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR

WEDNESDAY - FEBRUARY 22, 2023 - ROOFING CERTIFICATION CLASS

The NAIIA is proud to announce that we are now offering a Residential Roofing Inspector certification class for our membership. This class is offered for NAIIA Members, only.

The objective of this training opportunity is to properly educate our members on how to comprehensively inspect a roof for damage and assess its existing condition. To our knowledge there is only one roofing designation offered to our industry. We want to change that. Our class will provide an unbiased approach to damage assessment.

The class will cover the following:

- Basic roof construction from framing to outside.
- How to properly measure and diagram different types of roofs (also to include technology to assist)
- Safety and proper access of residential roofs
- Different types of residential roofing materials
- Understanding flashings, drip edge, skylights, chimneys, penetrations, etc.
- Identifying damage (wind, hail, impact, animal, fire)
- Identifying wear and tear, deterioration, improper installation, manufactures defects, manmade damage, common areas of failure
- When you need an expert
- How to perform a brittle test on asphalt shingles
- How to properly gauge asphalt shingles, metal, single ply membrane roofs
- Understanding ordinance of law and how to find out if it applies in the area
- Best practices in dealing with insureds, roofing contractors, and PA's

The training will be set up much like the Appraisal/Umpire class with classroom instruction followed by comprehensive testing to ensure the adjuster's proficiency. Our good friends at EDT Engineering will be providing detailed technical support throughout the class ensuring a greater forensic understanding of the process. Having their forensic engineers assist will make the information much more vivid and unforgettable.

There is a $299.00 Charge for this class. HOWEVER!!!! NAIIA Member firms can apply for a maximum of up to $500 per company in scholarships from the Crowley Fund. This will be on a first come first served basis, until the Crowley Fund is expended, so register soon!

We are pending the number of CE Hours that the Texas Department of Insurance will allow for this class.
